Dear Colonel Munro.

I received a telegram today from Elgote as follows -"No objection to leave provided Madras Govt. agree and Biddle can take charge during your absence in addition to his own duties. You should apply officially at once."

I have wired in reply as follows -

"Madras Govt. agree my proposal to go and Reimer to carry on. At my absence only fortnight. please consent Reimer taking charge."

To this I should get a reply on Tuesday next.

I very much doubt whether I shall risk the journey after all. I have been so up & down the past week, that if I got a relapse on board ship, or at a City Lane Hotel, I should be done for & miserable. If I am not better than I am now I should not dream of going. I hope to go to my room on Wednesday instead of having it sent out to my house as lately -
