Reference - Your No. 67 W.Z. Dated 10th July 1885

I have the honor to inform you, that I have ordered the necessary survey and levels to be taken of the Road from Koraput to the Central Provinces, as suggested by the Governor's Agent, but I consider it necessary, that the Surveyor and his Lascars should be provided with shelter through a Country Covered with forest and Jungle and notorious for malarious fever and its accompaniments. Further it is not likely, that they can obtain any other shelter throughout the
