In obedience to W's order of the 17th ultimo. I beg to submit the following explanation:—

My note of the 13th October was primarily intended for Dy.W. and was intended to show what the rules & practice of the Dept were in filling up such vacancies.

The necessity of appointing one of the permanent Sub Engineers was due to the fact that there were no names of suitable outsiders registered for temporary Assistant Engineerships and that the appointment of an outsider (even if any names had been registered) would

I have initialled this draft, — but should like on my return to Madras to have an explanation of the statement in Mr. Upsons note of 13.10.85, to the effect that, if another temporary A.E. is appointed, the selection must be made from three men named by him.

Mr. Upsons explanation submitted.

The matter would have been clearer, had he made use of the words "may be made", instead of "must be made".
