READ—the following papers —

From the Superintending Engineer, I Circle, dated 12th June 1884

Certificate and report from D C GORDON, Esq, Examiner of Public Works Accounts, to the Acting Under Secretary to Government, Pension department, dated Madras, 18th December 1884, No 860-A R

Certified that, should Government be pleased to treat the applicant's services from 26th December 1861 to 31st March 1862 and from 1st April 1864 to 31st March 1865 as qualifying superior service on the strength of his affidavit, statements of three contemporary servants, and on the specific opinion of the head of office that the "claim is established and should be admitted," qualifying service in superior grades will amount to 14 years 5 months and 18 days, and that an invalid gratuity not exceeding Rs 180, equal to twelve months' emoluments at Rs 15 per mensem, will be admissible under sections 106 and 113 (a) of the Civil Pension Code

2 The Superintending Engineer in his letter, No 827-G D, of 21st June 1884, supports the recommendation made by the Executive Engineer, Godavari eastern division, in his letter, No 144, of the 13th June 1884, viz, that the applicant's services as maistry on Rs 20 per mensem may be treated as superior qualifying service as a special case, he having been promoted to the post of maistry as a reward for his good conduct. Should Government feel disposed to take a favorable view of the case, then, with the sanction of the Government of India, the applicant may be allowed a pension not exceeding Rs 6-10-8 per mensem, what he would have been entitled to when his services were dispensed with on reduction of establishment in March 1880, with effect from the 5th November 1883 for a qualifying superior service of over 15 years—vide sections 106, 113 (b), and 105 of the Civil Pension Code

3 The calculations have been duly verified. The invalid gratuity or pension—whatever may be sanctioned—is chargeable to General (now Provincial) revenues

4 With reference to section 134, rule 4, attention is invited to section 69 of the Civil Pension Code
