READ—the following letter from Colonel G. CHESNEY, Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department, to the Director-General of Ordnance in India, dated Fort William, 17th March 1885, No. 273 M.W. :—

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 704 (Camp), dated 2nd January 1885, representing the expediency of a uniform system in the three presidencies for dealing with building requirements of the Ordnance Department.

2. In reply I am directed to state that the Government of India concur with you that all the requirements of the Ordnance Department should be submitted to the Government of India by you; the Government of India will then communicate with local Governments and administrations with a view to the inclusion in their respective budget estimates of such works as are selected for immediate execution, and these works will then be considered as class A*

3. You should, accordingly, issue such orders to the officers of the Ordnance Department as will ensure your being able to submit the list of your requirements for the consideration of the Government of India not later than the 1st October of each year.

4. I am to add that the Government of India desire it to be understood that these orders will not interfere with any procedure which the Commander-in-Chief in India or the Governments of Madras and Bombay may consider necessary to keep them fully informed regarding proposals for buildings required by the Ordnance Department.
