ENCLOSURE.

Army Circular, India, dated 13th February 1884.

PAY AND ALLOWANCES.

BRITISH ARMY.

Rate of exchange for the conversion of English pay and remittances of British troops serving in India.

With the sanction of Her Majesty's Government, the pay and allowances of warrant and non-commissioned officers and men of the British Army serving in India will be issued under the following regulations from the dates specified.

2. From the 1st January 1884, the rates of English pay will be converted into Indian money at the rate of exchange fixed annually by Her Majesty's Government for the payment of troops serving in the Colonies.

Good-conduct pay, deferred and extra-duty pay, gratuities, prizes for skill at arms, and all allowances fixed in sterling money will be paid at the above rate of exchange.

All family, savings bank, and other remittances of Indian money to England will be made at the same rate, but only with effect from the 1st April 1884. From the 1st January to the 31st March 1884 these remittances will be made at the present rate.

3. No change will be made in the payment of any Indian allowances now fixed in Indian money.

4. The rate of exchange under the above rules has been fixed by Her Majesty's Government at 1s. 8d. the rupee for the period from 1st January to the 31st March 1884 and for the
