Please draft reference to the Public & Military: Departments inquiring whether their records show under whose charge the statues at Madison (Pres. Hill & Sir L. Kemmer) are supposed to be.

It is clear that the public statues in Madras are nobody's child, & that such a state of things should be ended.

Their custody might be either vested in the Madras Municipality, or in the P.W. Dept. or

several grounds I am of opinion that the second alternative is the best.

Please have a brief
note prepared to that effect, which might go to Chief Secretary for initials before being submitted to Govt.
