READ—the following letter from G. HAMNETT, Esq., Inspector-General of Registration, Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Ootacamund, 18th April 1886, T. No. 1252 :—

The sub-registrar's office at Tekkali, in the district of Ganjam, which was made a special office in 1880, is still held in the deputy tahsildar's cutcherry. The accommodation is ill-suited and registration does not progress.

2. In December last year the sub-registrar reported, "there is no place to move about, and there is no room for females (who decline to sit) to stand."

3. The registrar was asked to inquire whether any house could be procured for rent. He now reports :—

"I could not find any to answer the purpose. I therefore beg you will take steps to have a separate building erected there as soon as possible."

4. Under the circumstances, I have the honor to request that you will be pleased to obtain the sanction of the Government for the erection of a sub-registry office at Tekkali, on the revised standard design.

No. 688 C., Judicial.

Approved, and transferred to the Public Works Department.
