READ—the following letter from G. HAMNETT, Esq., Inspector-General of Registration, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Ootacamund, 11th April 1886, T. No. 1037 :—

It has been in contemplation since 1883 to transfer the sub-registry office at Prattipaud, in the Godavari district, from the ex-officio sub-registrar to a special sub-registrar, but the difficulty in doing so has been the want of accommodation, public or private, in which the office could be held.

2. In October 1885 the registrar wrote :—"The transfer of the sub-registry office to a special officer is urgently called for on public grounds, and for many reasons it is undesirable to allow it to continue under the ex-officio sub-registrar;" and he suggested the removal of the office to Kirlampudi, 2 miles off, the seat of a Zemindar, where a tiled building could be had for a monthly rent of Rs. 4.

3. I was not in favor of the removal, as there was no officer at Kirlampudi who could, in cases of emergency, take charge of the office. I referred the papers to Mr. W. S. Foster, the Collector, and he concurred with me "in thinking that it was not advisable to remove the office to Kirlampudi."

4. The registrar was accordingly directed to inquire, when he went to Prattipaud, whether a suitable private building could be had for rent. He visited the place on the 15th March last, and now reports that "no suitable tiled building is available for rent" and that "even the sub-magistrate was living in a thatched house."

5. As it is very desirable that the registration office should be placed in charge of a special sub-registrar, I have the honor to recommend the construction of a sub-registry office at Prattipaud on the revised standard design, and to request that the sanction of the Government may be obtained for the preparation of the necessary plan and estimate.

Dated, Potacamund, 11th April 1886.

Sir,

It has been in contemplation since 1883 to transfer the Sub Registry office at Prattipaud in the Godavari District from the Ex-officio Sub Registrar to a Special Sub Registrar, but the difficulty in doing so has been the want of accommodation, public or private, in which the office could be held.

called for on public grounds, and for many reasons, it is undesirable to allow it to continue under the Ex-officio Sub Registrar - and

He suggested the removal of the office to Kirlampudi, two miles off, the seat of a Zamindar, where a tiled building could be had for a monthly rent of 4 Rupees.

3. I was not in favor of the removal, as there was no officer at Kirlampudi who could in cases of emergency take charge of the office.

I referred the papers to Mr. W. V. Foster, the Collector, and he concurred with me "in thinking that it was not advisable to remove the office to Kirlampudi".

and that "even the Sub Magistrate was living in a thatched house".
