READ—the following paper:—

G.O., dated 6th July 1886, No. 3962, Revenue.

Read—the following letter from Major S. C. CLARKE, R.E., Superintending Engineer, I Circle, to the Examiner, Public Works Accounts, dated Gopálpur, 18th May 1886, No. 64 G.L.:—

Finding that I have to pay both the Indian and English income tax on my home remittances monthly, varying from Rs. 800 to Rs. 900, I have the honor to request you will let me know whether I would not be justified, under the power of the late Act of the Government of India, to deduct the amount I purpose remitting, or may have previously remitted to England, through my agents in Madras or the Bank of Madras, from my monthly pay before computing the assessment due to the Indian Government in the monthly establishment bill. I can obtain from my agents or the Bank a certificate showing the amount remitted, which I presume your office would accept as a correct voucher.

Endorsement on the above.
