9TH JULY 1886, No. 375, MARINE.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
MARINE DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

Endorsement, dated 28th June 1886, No. 3850, Military.

Read—the following extract of a Military Despatch from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for India, dated 27th May 1886, No. 40.

Para. 2. With reference to paragraph 2 of my Military Despatch, No. 9, dated 21st January 1886, I have to inform you that the engagement of Mr. Cockburn as Engineer to superintend the working of the dredgers sent to your presidency has been completed, and that he proceeded to Madras by the P. and O. Company's steamer which left on the 5th May 1886.

A copy of the agreement with Mr. Cockburn was sent by the mail of the 7th May under cover to the Secretary to Government, Military Department, Fort St. George.

Mr. Cockburn has been definitely engaged for a period of nine months at a salary of Rs. 525 per mensem,—service beyond the nine months, up to three years, being paid at the same rate, and being terminable by three months' notice. He will receive his necessary travelling expenses on Government service in India, as well as free passage out, and home, if he returns to England within a month of the completion of his service under agreement.

Transferred to the Marine Department, in continuation of Military Department No. 3278, dated 1st June 1886.

(By Order.)
