

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

ECCLESIASTICAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper :—

From J. B. PENNINGTON, Esq., Collector of Tanjore, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Ammápet, 5th July 1886, No. 4402.

I have the honor to submit herewith a list of cemeteries and Christian burial-grounds in this district for the official year 1885-86 with the necessary remarks as to their condition, &c.

2. All the cemeteries and burial-grounds are reported to be in good order except Nos. 1, 3 and 13. In the two first some monuments are said to require repair though something was done in the first during the year under report, and in the last the south compound wall is in want of slight repair.

3. Although there are no cemeteries in the Patukóta taluk, there are two tombs, one at Patukóta and the other at Anaikadu near Patukóta, and they are also reported to be in good order.
