his pension papers were submitted. It is quite clear that Mr. Langhlin never was gazetted as an accountant and it would have been altogether an incorrect procedure to have considered him an accountant for the purpose of giving him an increased allowance on retirement.

Sir,

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 2151 W. of the 16th September last, forwarding with certain remarks a further memorial from Mr. W. A. Langhlin, formerly employed as a clerk in the office of the Examiner Public Works Accounts Madras, and now a Government pensioner. In reply I am to inform you that the Government of India has given the subject very careful consideration, with particular reference to Mr. Langhlin's plea to the effect that the omission to grade him as an accountant was due to an oversight, and can arrive at no other conclusion than that already expressed in Public Works Department letter No. 37 A.C. dated 7th March 1882, namely, that there are no grounds for interfering with the decision of the Madras Government on Mr. Langhlin's first petition.

I may add that the Government of India has referred the matter to Col. Trail and that officer is quite satisfied that there was no oversight in retiring Mr. Langhlin.

Colonel Trail states that Mr. Langhlin's claim to be graded as an accountant were fully gone into by
