16TH SEPTEMBER 1886, No. 1934, PUBLIC.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper :—

From H. G. TURNER, Esq., Collector of Vizagapatam, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Vizagapatam, 16th August 1886, No. 33.

In G.O., Public Department, 10th July 1886, No. 1426, Government laid it down as a standing rule that, "unless authorized to do so by any existing rule or order of Government, no officer in the public service shall accept any remuneration from any other Government, body or individual."

2. In G.O., 29th October 1877, No. 2548, Judicial Department, Government refused "to lay down any hard-and-fast rule to prohibit subordinate servants from earning additional means of livelihood out of office hours when their services are not demanded by the head of the department or by the Government."

3. I have the honor to request the instructions of Government as to whether the G.O. of 10th July 1886 is intended to apply only to gazetted officers or also to ministerial servants; and, if it is intended to apply to all servants, whether paragraph 7 of the G.O., dated 29th October 1877, has been cancelled by it, and whether in that case the head of the office may give the necessary sanction, or whether the permission of Government should be obtained in each case of a ministerial officer requesting to be allowed to execute any small job for private individuals for remuneration. Hitherto, some of my clerks have once a year audited the accounts of this or that institution out of office hours when their services were not required in the interests of Government, and it would be hard to deprive them of this additional means of livelihood, which they have earned without in any way interfering with their public duties.

ORDER—dated 16th September 1886, No. 1934, Public.

In the case of ministerial officers, the head of the office is authorized to give the sanction required by G.O., 10th July 1886, No. 1426.
