LETTER—to

THE RIGHT HONORABLE THE SECRETARY OF STATE FOR INDIA.

MY LORD,

We have the honor to forward copy of a telegram received from the Government of India, on the 2nd September 1886, as follows :—

"Please arrange for passage home for P. H. Cresswell, Assistant Engineer, Bellary-Kistna Railway, now in General Hospital,* and for a suitable man to take charge of him on the voyage, adjusting the amount with Examiner of that Railway. Also intimate to India Office name of steamer for communication to Cresswell's friends, whose address should, if possible, be obtained."

* Madras.

2. Mr. Cresswell did not arrive in Madras until the 16th September, and the Senior Medical Officer reported that he was admitted into the General Hospital on that date suffering from "Melancholia."

3. On the recommendation of the medical authorities, Mr. John Harvey was appointed as medical attendant to take charge of Mr. Cresswell on the voyage. Mr. Harvey has studied for four years in the Madras Medical College, and is reported to be well qualified in every respect to escort Mr. Cresswell to England. The terms agreed upon with Mr. Harvey are—

That he receive a free return first-class passage (available for six months) to London.

That, on the safe delivery of Mr. Cresswell to his friends in England, he receive the sum of £25.

4. Mr. Cresswell and his medical attendant sailed from Madras in the S.S. Clun Forbes on the 4th instant, and we have the honor to request that Mr. Cresswell's
