READ—the following paper:—

From G. HAMNETT, Esq., Inspector-General of Registration, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 8th September 1886, G. No. 2409.

With reference to G.O., Judicial, dated the 24th March 1885, No. 796, approving of the transfer of the sub-registry office at Kangundi, in the district of North Arcot, from the ex-officio sub-registrar to a special sub-registrar, I have the honor to state that the special officer joined the station on the 31st August 1885, and was absent for a month-and-a-half, during the period ending the 30th August 1886, on leave and other emergent duty. But notwithstanding this interruption, the following figures show that the progress made, both in registrations and receipts, is all that could be desired:—

	Registrations.			Receipts.
	Compulsory.	Optional.	Total.
Official Agency.	NO.	NO.	NO.	RS.
September 1884 to August 1885	155	129	284	599
Special Agency.

Increase ..	46	55	101	121
Percentage ..	29	43	35	20

2. The receipts and expenditure for the year 1885-86 were:—

Receipts	RS.
Expenditure	635
Surplus ..	529
	106

3. The district had to its credit Rs. 8,864.

4. I inspected this office suddenly on the 17th March 1886, and the enclosed copy of my notes will show the irregularities during the time the ex-officio officer was placed temporarily in charge of the office.

5. A new office building is urgently needed here, and I would recommend that the sanction of His Excellency the Governor in Council may be obtained for its construction, and for the permanent retention of the special officer.

ORDER—dated 27th September 1886, No. 2580, Judicial.

The recommendations made in paragraph 5 are approved.
