Appointments - Royal Engineers

Read the following papers -

N^o 3. From Major General D. R. Newmarch, Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department, to the Adjutant General in India, dated Simla, 19th October 1886, N^o 1527 A.S.

Appointments - Royal Engineers

In reply to your letter N^o 4498-C dated the 4th September 1886, I am directed to say, for the information of the Commander-in-Chief, that it has been ruled by the Secretary of State for India that Royal Engineer Officers serving in Civil Departments who may claim for continuous service in India come wholly under the Civil Leave Rules.

2. This ruling disposes of Major Jacob's inquiry referred for consideration in your letter N^o 4498-C dated the 29th September 1886.

From Major General D. R. Newmarch, Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department, to the Adjutant General in India, dated dated Simla, 19th October 1886, N^o 1528-A.S.

Appointments- Royal Engineers

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter N^o 4110-C, dated the 14th September 1886, submitting, for orders, an inquiry made by Major Baird, R.E., in connection with his election for continuous service in India, as to what furlough pay he would be entitled to in England.

2. In reply I am to say that the Secretary of State having ruled that Royal Engineer Officers serving in Civil Departments who may elect for continuous service in India come wholly under the Civil Leave Rules, Major Baird would get furlough pay under these rules at the annual rate of exchange, irrespective of any privileges which he may have had under former rules.
