Summary of replies from certain clerks of the Government Secretariat who occupied Govt quarters this season at Pokaramund and who have been called upon to shew cause why they should not pay for the articles broken and lost in their quarters.

Names of the clerks & of the quarters occupied by them. Articles stated to be broken and lost by the Ex. Engineer, Nilgiris. Probable value.

Explanation.

Remarks.

£ A. P.

Mr. W. Lyons. 1 soap tray broken " - 8 - "
Chief Secy - 1 commode pan do 3 - " - " ariat.

Stonehouse Hill.

Broken by pure accident

Mr. H. Hogg. 1 soap tray broken " - 8 - "
Chief Secretariat 1 door lock key lost " - 2 - "
Stonehouse Hill.

Broken and lost by accident

Mr. Coombes. 1 basin broken 2 - 8 - "
Chief Secretariat 1 commode pan do 3 - " - "
2 soap trays do 1 - " - "
Ottery Hall. 1 door lock key lost " - 2 - "
1 cupboard key lost " - 2 - "

The basin, pan, and trays were broken by accident, the bath room being slippery when wet, but the keys were wanting on occupation of the quarters.

Mr. F. A. D'Ung. 1 door lock key lost " - 8 - "
Chief Secretariat.
Ottery Hall.

The gardener in charge of the quarters had charge of the keys on his occupation of the quarters allotted to him, and made no complaint of any keys being lost when he left, after having made over charge of the keys and his quarters. Submits that the gardener should be held responsible for them.

Mr. D. Munk. 2 door lock keys lost 1 - " - "
Livine 1 soap tray broken " - 8 - "
Secretariat 3 mattresses partly torn } 6 - " - "
Ottery Hall.

Before leaving his quarters he made over the soap tray in good condition to the gardener - never having had occasion to use the tray as he had one of his own. Cannot be held responsible for the 2 door lock keys lost as they were never in his possession. States that 2 of the 3 mattresses were slightly torn, but submits that this was unavoidable being used by little children who were quite unable to leave their beds at night, and further that these 2 mattresses were used in previous seasons by former married clerks and unable to say in what manner they were then used. Begs that this explanation may be accepted and that he may be exonerated from all blame.
