13th December 1886, No. 7730.

Commands.

Read the following paper :—

No. 134. From Major D. J. S. McLEOD, Deputy Quarter Master General, Madras Army, to Lieutenant-Colonel A. KENNEY-HERBERT, Secretary to Government, Military Department; dated 2nd December 1886, No. 4446-A.

Referring to G.O.G., No. 660, dated 16th ultimo, I have the honor, by order, to annex, for the information of Government, a copy of circular addressed to General officers commanding divisions and districts under the orders of the Provincial Commander-in-Chief, and to solicit that, if approved, Government will be pleased to notify the changes therein indicated in limits of the several commands mentioned to all the Civil Departments concerned.

No. 4428-A.

CIRCULAR.

Referring to G.O.G., No. 660, dated 16th ultimo, and to O.G., No. 4513, dated 23rd August 1882 (fixing limits of the Bangalore Division, Eastern and Western District Commands), it is now notified that the new Southern District will include the district of Malabar, the states of Cochin and Travancore, the districts of Tinnevely, Madura, Tanjore, Trichinopoly, Coimbatore and the Nilgiris; the last four districts being transferred from the Eastern District and Bangalore Division Commands.

The district of South Canara, formerly in the Western District, will be included in the Belgaum District Command.
