From

The Examinr. P.W. Accts. (A.C. No. 111/82/1st Feb 1886)

Ordered that the Govt of India be addressed.

(A.C. No. 363 W 1st Feb 1886)
To the Secretary to the Govt. of India.
P.W. Dept.

Sir, In continuation of my letter No. 234
W dated 27th Jan 1886,
I am directed to enquire whether the promotions in your 25th
dated 7th Jan 1886,

For P.W. Accts. L.

are intended to
supersede those contained in your No.
37 of dated 8th Jan'y 1884.

2. In accordance with the principles
laid down in the
last letter above
quoted, and with the
sanction of the Govt.
of India in each case,
this Govt. have appointed seven qualified upper subordinate to be temporary. Impersons, and have filled their places
in the upper subordinate establishment
by Substantive pro
tempore promotions.

In his letter No. 111 W
dated 1st February 1886, copy forwarded
herewith, the Hon.
P. W. Accountant gives
the question whether your No. 25 of dated 7th January 1886 is applicable to such cases. I am also to inquire whether Substantive pro tempore
promotions
would be admissible
in the case of a Permanent upper Subordinate temporarily transferred
to temporary duty
on a higher grade of

3. This Com. does not think that
 your letter is intended to apply to such cases, but interpret
 it to mean that, if
 a member of the
 permanent establishment be deputed
 to temporary duty
 on his permanent
 rate of salary, such deputation should
 not be regarded as
 causing a substantive
pro tempore vacancy
 in the permanent
 establishment

4. Same point
and that it is not always practicable
to find qualified
outsiders for the
better paid posts
in temporary divi=sions; and that if,
in the interests of
the public service,
members of the
permanent esta=blishment are
appointed thereto,
the O.C. now in C. is strongly of opinion that their places on the permanent establish=ment should be
filled by substantive
pro tempore
