READ—the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 23rd January 1886, No. 185:—

Read—the following letter from G. D. LEMAN, Esq., Collector of Coimbatore, to the Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 5th December 1885, Reference on No. 1988-Mis.:—

The building used as a deputy tahsildar's office at Aravakurichi is quite unsuited for the purpose. It is too small. There is no accommodation for the police. The lock-up is very bad, and there is not space near to allow of the existing building being enlarged. It can only be improved by being reconstructed.

2. Aravakurichi, though once the cusbah station of a taluk, is a very small village now, containing only 956 houses with a population of 3,585, and is, in my opinion, not the best place for the head-quarter station of the deputy tahsildar.

3. Pallapatti, not quite 4 miles off, is a large and rising village and contains 1,517 houses and 6,351 people, of whom most are traders, and there is a fine site for a new building in Government waste land available there.

4. There is a considerable Lubbai population who will be the better kept in order by a police station and a magistrate resident in their midst.

5. Under these circumstances, I have the honor to request that the sanction of Government may be obtained to the construction of a new office at Pallapatti instead of Aravakurichi, as the Executive Engineer has prepared plan and proposed to ask for funds for the work shortly.

6. The Board will no doubt remember that when this proposal was first known to the villagers about they protested against it, and the Board gave them an endorsement that the removal of the sub-magistrate's cutcherry and the police station at Aravakurichi to Pallapatti has been proposed for sound reasons.

Resolution—dated 23rd January 1886, No. 185.

Submitted for the orders of Government.

2. For the reasons given by the Collector, the Board are of opinion that the new cutcherry should be located at Pallapatti and not at Aravakurichi.
