GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following papers :—

From the Collector of North Arcot, dated 27th October 1885.

Certificate and report from W. T. PIERCY, Esq., Assistant Accountant-General, to the Acting Under Secretary to Government, Pension department, dated Fort St. George, 4th January 1886, No. A.D.J.—295.

Certified that, should Government be pleased to commute the applicant's absence without leave from 29th April to 13th May 1878 into leave without allowances, qualifying service in superior grades will be duly proved for 21 years 7 months and 11 days, and a superannuation pension, not exceeding Rs. 10 per mensem, equal to one-third average emoluments, will be admissible under sections 110, 113 (b) and 115 of the Civil Pension Code, 6th edition.

2. It will be seen from the history of service that the applicant served in the appointment of military pension writer for nearly ten years, viz., from 24th February 1851 to 8th November 1860. The Government of India, in their letter, No. 180 S.F., dated 16th April 1885, to the Secretary to Government, Military department, of this presidency, embodied in G.O., No. 667, dated 27th May 1885, sanctioned the extension of the benefit of the Civil Pension rules to the clerks employed under civil officers in paying military pensioners. On enquiring whether that order was to have retrospective effect in regard to clerks now employed in that appointment, the Government of India decided that the order might be applied retrospectively in respect of the service of the present employes: vide letter, No. 351, Financial, dated 15th July 1885, embodied in G.O., No. 1040, dated 21st August 1885. It is not clear from the order of April 1885 whether, in making the service pensionable, the Government of India intended that all services previously rendered should also be regarded as pensionable. Should Government, with reference to the two orders quoted above, be pleased to decide that that was their intention, the applicant's total period of pensionable service may be held to have been proved for 31 years 3 months and 26 days, entitling him to a superannuation pension of Rs. 15 a month. In the event of this rate of pension being sanctioned to him, it is respectfully requested that the sanction may be communicated to the Government of India, in the Financial department, for confirmation.

3. The applicant was granted leave on medical certificate on the several occasions named in the margin, and he drew absentee allowances amounting to Rs. 195-4-5. Having attained the age of 55 years, he was not entitled to it: vide section 46 of the Civil Leave Code. It rests with Government to decide whether the amount should be recovered or not in instalments from the pension that may be sanctioned to him.

4. The delay in the submission of this application is explained by the Collector at foot of the 1st page of the application.

5. In accordance with rule 4, under section 134, the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to section 69 of the code.

ORDER—dated 8th February 1886, No. 132, Pension.

Under sections 110, 113 (b) and 115 of the Civil Pension Code (6th edition), the Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Akula Venkatasami Nayudu, late 2nd compositor, North Arcot Collector's office, a superannuation pension of Rs. (10) ten per mensem, payable in Madras from 30th July 1885, in consideration of his qualifying superior service of 21 years 7 months and 11 days.

2. Under rule 8, section 97, of the above code, the applicant's absence without leave from 29th April to 13th May 1878 is commuted into leave without allowance.

3. No recovery need be made from the applicant on account of the pay which was drawn by him while on leave to which he was not entitled, as the Government consider that it is the officer who allowed the improper payment who should be held responsible for the breach of the rules. In future, officers will be called upon to refund all amounts irregularly passed by them.
