Extract from the Civil Pension Code.
Section 106. Rule 6(a)

After the age of fifty-five years, no Military or Naval officer shall be appointed to a new office in civil employment, whether substantive or officiating; nor, except in special cases sanctioned by the Secretary of State, shall he be permitted to retain any such office which he has held for five years and upwards. Provided that a Military officer employed in the Public Works Department cannot claim to retain any such office for a longer period than may have been specially fixed by the Government of India (or Madras or Bombay, as the case may be) at the time of his appointment to the office.

(Note.— This rule should be strictly enforced, unless the retirement of any officer should be considered by the Government under which he is serving to be injurious to the public interest.)

In reply to your telegram of the 21st Inst^y enquiring whether Government insists on Royal Engineer Officers retiring from the Dep^y on attaining 55 years of age, I am directed to refer you to Section 106, Rule 6(a), of the Civil Pension Code and to request that if the Madras Government has any doubt on the matter in regard to the application of the rule to any particular case, the question may be referred, with full details, to the Government of India.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Your most obed^t Servant
