Please favor me with your opinion whether an officer in foreign service is eligible to receive temporary promotion on his own list, and being seconded, whether another officer of the same list may also receive promotion.

2. A case in point is that of Major Bowen R.E., Suptg. Engineer, III class, at present employed in Mysore -

On the 18th June last a promotion to Suptg. Engr II class temporary rank became available, and was given to Mr. Walsh - Could Major Bowen, as the senior, have been promoted to II class temporary, and being seconded, could a step

My dear Campbell,

The following are examples of S. P. C. and temporary promotions to men on "foreign service" - what applies to the accounts branch of course applies to Engineers Establishments also.

A. R. Hecker - Examiner 4th class 1st grade,
Sub pro tem, from 1st June 85 to 6 May 1st July 86 to 31st December 85.

--- do --- Examiner 3rd class, temporary,
from 7 May 86 (was relieved in Mysore Service on 25 May 86).

This I think clinches the question & I hope will ensure my getting the steps I alluded to, without prejudicing others.

The Inspector for is prepared to accept any steps I may get & in fact to recommence me for same if necessary.

Kindly let me hear early what may be Col: Harted's decision, as I am naturally anxious about it.

Yours sincerely

2. A case in point is that of Major Bowen, R.E., Deputy Engineer 3^d class permanent, whose services have been lent to the Mysore State, and who has therefore been seconded on the Madras list. The question is whether Major Bowen may receive temporary steps in his turn, as a supernumerary, while the next officer of the same grade actually present on the Madras list, receives similar steps from the same date.

3. The Ex^o P.W. Accounts is of opinion that under para * 66 of the Madras P.W. Code, temporary promotion is not available for Major Bowen, but it is understood that Mr A.R. Becher, Examiner P.W. Accounts Mysore has granted temporary and substantive pro tem promotion

READ—the following letter from G. H. D. WALKER, Esq., Officiating Under Secretary to the Government of India, Public Works Department (General), to the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Public Works Department, dated Fort William, 18th December 1886, No. 2073 G. :—

In reply to your letter, No. 3020 W., dated 15th ultimo, I am directed to state that an officer employed under a foreign State may receive substantive pro tempore promotion on his own list without prejudicing the claims of the next senior officer present. The absent officer cannot receive temporary promotion. If, however, he becomes entitled to temporary promotion, and would receive it were he on the substantive strength, his foreign employers are usually informed of the fact for such action as they may think fit.

ORDER—dated 6th January 1887, No. 8 W., Public Works.
