Simla, 1886.

Circular Memorandum addressed to General Officers Commanding Divisions and Districts.

In continuation of this Office Circulars marginally noted, which direct that no work or building of any kind is to be erected in the vicinity of any fort or cantonment without the sanction of the Government of India first obtained, the Quarter Master General is directed to intimate that, under the orders of the Government of India as contained in No. 1062MW, dated 22nd September 1885, questions of minor alterations of existing buildings, the property of Government, within the rayon of forts need not be referred for the orders of Government, but may be decided by the officer commanding the station with the advice of the officer of the Military Works Department on the spot. If the officer commanding approves of what is proposed to be done, the work may be at once proceeded with; but if he disapproves, his veto will be absolute, pending a reference to higher authority by those desiring to make the alterations.

No. 42, dated 11th August 1881.
No. 32, dated 16th June 1884.

Where the erection of new buildings, or alteration of, or addition to, existing ones is in question, the matter should invariably be immediately reported by the officer commanding the station for the orders of superior authority.
