READ—the following letter from the Quartermaster-General, to the Secretary to Government, Military Department, dated Ootacamund, 4th March 1886, No. 846 A:—

It having been brought to the notice of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief that the roof of the old officers' guard-room (designated sergeants' quarters) of the European infantry barracks, and that of the cook-house attached to the Royal Artillery barracks, at Trichinopoly, have recently fallen in, I have the honor, by order, to submit, for the consideration and orders of Government, His Excellency's recommendation that these buildings be demolished, and the materials sold by the Public Works Department.

2. It is not likely that the buildings in question will ever be again required for military purposes.

No. 1476, Military.

Approved, and transferred to the Public Works Department for the necessary action.

READ—the following letter from Colonel G. CHESNEY, Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department, to the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Public Works Department, dated Simla, 30th October 1883, No. 1079 M.W. :—

In reply to your letter, No. 2802 W., dated 5th October 1883, I am directed to convey the sanction of the Government of India to the dismantlement of the old rest-house at Beypore referred to therein.

2. With reference to paragraph 2 of letter, No. 325 M.W., dated 19th April 1881, from the Government of India in the Public Works Department, I am directed to request that, in future, the Government of Madras will sanction, in ordinary cases like the present, the demolition of superfluous military buildings without reference to the former.

ORDER—dated 12th November 1883, No. 3205 W., Public Works.

Communicated to the Superintending Engineer, Fourth Circle, with reference to Proceedings of Government, No. 2801 W., dated 5th October 1883.

2. Paragraph 1217 of the Public Works Code will be modified with reference to paragraph 2 of the foregoing letter.

The buildings in question appear to be insignificant ones, & they are apparently in a dilapidated condition, the roofs having fallen in.

It was thought therefore that they could hardly be utilised
by other Dept.
