From Major J. E. BROADBENT, for Officiating Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department, to the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Public Works Department, dated Fort William, 3rd March 1887, No. 400 M.W.

In reply to your letter, No. 297 W., dated 4th February 1887, I am directed to invite your attention to this department letter, No. 1079 M.W., dated 30th October 1883, in which the Government of Madras was empowered to sanction, in ordinary cases, the demolition of superfluous military buildings without reference to the Government of India, and to request that His Excellency the Governor in Council may be moved to issue the necessary instructions for disposing of the superfluous military buildings at Trichinopoly, as may be deemed most advantageous to public interests.

From the same officer, dated Fort William, 3rd March 1887, No. 405 M.W.

In reply to your letters, Nos. 501 W. and 503 W., both dated 19th February 1887, I am directed to invite your attention to this department letter, No. 1079 M.W., dated 30th October 1883, and to request that His Excellency the Governor in Council may be moved to issue such orders as may be deemed expedient for the disposal of the superfluous military buildings referred to in your letters.

Order—dated 12th March 1887, No. 776 W., Public Works.

Communicated to the Superintending Engineers concerned, with advertence to the proceedings of Government marginally noted.
