READ—the following letter from His Excellency MONS. MANES, Governor of the French Settlements in India, to His Excellency the Right Honorable the Governor of Madras, dated Pondicherry, the 20th March 1887, No. 10:—

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, dated 25th February last, and to request you, as the Viceroy of India, to accept my thanks for the recent ruling in regard to the transmission of free service telegrams sent to the British Office by my Government.

2. Besides the Chefs de Service of each of the settlements of Chandernagore, Karikal, Mahé and Yanam, with whom I have already telegraphic exemption, the only representatives of the French Government to whom I shall have to address service telegrams are:—

The Consul-General of France, Calcutta.
The Consul of France, Bombay.
The Vice-Consul of France, Madras.
The Consular Agent of France, Cocanada.

3. I shall also be much obliged if telegraphic exemption could be extended to communications exchanged between my Government and the Collector of South Arcot, by reason of the many matters which we have to correspond about with that high official.

Transferred to the Chief Secretary to Government for disposal.
