25th May 1887, No. 3034

Furlough.

Read the following :—

No. Military despatch from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for India, to His Excellency the Right Honorable the Governor-General of India in Council ; dated India Office, London, 31st March 1887, No. 86.

I have received and considered in Council your military despatch No. 33 of the 15th February last, in which you state that you concur in the proposal to place officers of Royal Engineers in India, who may not elect for continuous service, under the leave rules applicable to Regimental Officers of the British Army serving in India.

2. You are, however, of opinion that the ruling should not affect officers now on the Indian establishment, who have established claims to furlough under the regulations of 1868.

3. I concur in this opinion. In issuing an order on the subject, it should therefore be notified that it will not affect officers on the Indian establishment at the date of the publication of Royal Engineer Corps memorandum No. 562 of the 11th March 1886, under which a first tour of Indian service was reduced to five years.

No. 963-A.

Furlough.

Copy forwarded for information, with the remark that the decision will be shortly published in India Army Circulars, to the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Military Department.
