SUPERINTENDING ENGINEER,

V CIRCLE,

To

THE Chief Engineer
P.W. Dept.
Thro' The Examiners P.W. Works.

SIR,

Enclosures.

1 List

I have the honor to report that under Code para 1720, I sanctioned the sale by public auction of certain old stores as per enclosed list and of side cuttings from round logs of timber both of the P.W. Stores and Workshops. In giving sanction to the sale of side cuttings, I specially mentioned that the sanction was for the sale of only such side cuttings as were not fit for putting up into any useful scantlings of small dimensions. The General Superintendent reports that only wood that was considered useless for Workshops purposes were sold. The Book Value of the old Stores was Rs. 578-3-7, that of the the side cuttings of timber (38 tons) Rs. 1520 - the sums realised by their sale, after payment of Auctioneer's Commission Rs. 94-8-9 and Rs. 457-3-2 paid I request that sanction may be given under Code para 1973 to the loss by sale in the two rates of Rs. 483-10-10 and Rs. 1062-12-10 being written off to Profit and Loss.

B

As it appears from para 2 of the Examiner's note that the whole of the tank cuttings
and old stores
belonged to the workshop, sanction is accorded
to the loss occasioned by their sale being in both cases
credited to "materials in hand" in the workshop manu-
-facture suspense
account and
debited to "Tools
and Plant".
