GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
MILITARY DEPARTMENT.

2nd June 1887, No. 3220.

Unattached List.

Read the following papers :—

- No. 35. From Brigadier-General E. FAUNCE, Quarter Master General, Madras Army, to Brigadier-General A. KENNEY-HERBERT, Secretary to Government, Military Department; dated Ootacamund, 20th April 1887, No. 1633-A.

I am desired to inquire, with reference to Clause 15, India Army Circular of 1887, whether it is to be understood that the date of joining a department as therein specified means the date of joining (whether in an acting, temporary or permanent appointment) for continuous service, or the date of actually first joining and doing duty temporarily therein.

2. It sometimes happens that a soldier after holding a temporary or acting appointment reverts to regimental duty for some months and is subsequently again brought into the department on a permanent vacancy occurring and remains on and is placed on the Unattached List.

3. It will be observed that there is no mention of continuous service in the India Army Circular above quoted.

- No. 36. To the Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department; dated 27th April 1887, No. 2438.

- No. 37. From Major T. DEANE, Deputy Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department, to Brigadier-General A. KENNEY-HERBERT, Secretary to the Government of Madras, Military Department; dated Simla, 14th May 1887, No. 367-AS.

Unattached List.

In reply to your letter No. 2438, dated 27th April 1887, I am directed to say, for the information of the Governor in Council, that the words "joining a department" in clause 15 of the Army Circular for 1887 mean joining a department for continuous service.

- No. 38. ORDER THEREON, 2nd June 1887, No. 3220.

The reply of the Government of India communicated to His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief and the Controller of Military Accounts.
