Sir,

Referring to your letter No 2498 C & P dated 24 January last, I have the honor to state that from Section 16 of act XIX of 1850 it appears that I can act only upon a Complaint of wilful and repeated ill-behaviour on the part of the Apprentice and, as no Complaint of repeated ill behaviour is made, I am unable to cancel the Contract of Apprenticeship.

The Contract is herewith returned

I have the honor to be
Sir
Your most obedient Servant

In returning to the Public Works Department in original the papers received under Endorsement No. 173 S. dated 1st June 1887, the undersigned is directed to point out that Act XIX of 1850 does not appear to have been drawn with any reference to government agreements; nor is an apprenticeship under it comparable to government service. Under section VIII of the Act it seems open to the Public Works Department to insert a condition in the Form of Apprenticeship to the effect that a criminal conviction confirmed on appeal shall terminate the agreement, but no other remedy seems available under the Act in the present case.
