Letter from the Comptroller and Auditor-General, No. 281, dated 9th May 1887.

Under the orders laid down in the Resolution of July 1880, Civil officers are required to submit returns of elephants in their custody to the Accountant-General or Comptroller, who forwards them to the Comptroller-General for compilation of a consolidated return for the Government of India. The Comptroller-General suggests in his letter, read in the preamble, that the compilation of these statements by Civil Accounts officers be discontinued, and that the duty of checking them be entrusted to administrative officers as in the case of the returns ordered in this department Resolution, No. 2430, dated 9th August 1886.

Resolution—

The Governor-General in Council approves of the proposal, and directs that elephants be included in the returns prescribed in the Resolution of 9th August 1886.

Order—

Ordered, that this Resolution be communicated for information and further orders to the several Local Governments and Administrations, and for information to the Comptroller and Auditor-General, to the several Accountants-General and Comptrollers, and to the Military Department.
