GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

ORDER—dated 13th December 1886, No. 1502, Pension.

His Excellency the Governor in Council observes that, notwithstanding the issue of stringent orders on the subject, delays continually occur in the submission of pension applications, the explanation usually furnished being that these arose from the difficulty in verifying the applicant's services. In G.O., Financial, No. 2957, dated 26th December 1877, it was ordered that the service books of Government servants should be verified and properly kept up while they are in service, and subsequently repeated orders to the same effect have been issued to Heads of Departments. His Excellency in Council must insist on these orders being obeyed and will severely notice any disregard of them in the future.
