Extract, paragraph 14, of a Military letter from the Right Hon'ble the Secretary of State for India, (No. 135, dated 12th May 1887).

14. In accordance with the request contained in the enclosed copy of a letter from the War Office, dated 19th April 1887, I request that instructions may be issued with a view to the list of documents therein specified being invariably sent home with men of the Unattached List returning to this country on furlough, or for any other cause.

From the Under-Secretary of State for War, to the Under-Secretary of State for India, —
No. 19 (General No. 2182), dated War Office, London, 19th April 1887.

I am desired by the Secretary of State for War to direct your attention to the delay which frequently takes place in carrying out the discharges of warrant officers and other soldiers of the Indian Unattached List, who have been sent to this country on furlough, in consequence of the absence of their discharge documents.

This delay necessarily leads to considerable expense by retaining the men on pay pending a reference to India, and, in order to obviate the inconvenience thereby caused, Mr. Secretary Stanhope desires me to suggest, for the consideration of the Secretary of State for India in Council, that the documents specified in the annexed list should invariably be sent home with men of the Unattached List returning to this country, whether on furlough, or for any other cause.
