From the Director of Public Instruction, dated 21st October 1886, No. 7145.
From the Port Officer, Madras, dated 8th October 1886, No. 9733.

ABSTRACT.—Replying to memorandum, No. 16036, dated 27th September 1886, inquiring whether heads of departments should now be empowered to grant privilege leave to gazetted officers, and, if so, to what officers and on what conditions.

ORDER—dated 11th January 1887, No. 44, Financial.

Under section 143-A of the Civil Leave Code, leave may be granted to an officer by the authority whose duty it would be to fill up his appointment, if vacant. But the Local Government may empower heads of departments to grant privilege leave to officers under their orders who are appointed by Government. If the officer to whom leave is thus granted be a gazetted officer, the grant of leave must be reported to Government.

2. No formal orders have yet been issued under this section of the code empowering heads of departments to grant privilege leave to gazetted officers.

3. After consideration of the replies quoted above, the Government are pleased to empower the following heads of departments to grant privilege leave to the gazetted officers specified in each case, for periods not exceeding one month, provided that no substitute is required to be appointed, or additional expense incurred, and that the grant of leave is reported at once to Government in the administrative department concerned. Whenever a substitute is required, the application for leave must be submitted to Government for sanction :—
