Please see Madras Code paras 530 and 531. The journals of only the Engineer Establishment are received and checked in this Office; those of Upper Subordinates being recorded in Supg. Engineers' Offices after check in that Office.

2. If Govt. desires it, Supg.
Engineers can be instructed to submit the journals of all Upper Subordinates for check and record in this Office.
The draft Govt. of India Code did not contain the alteration made in Chapter IV. paras 97-99. For claims under journals not submitted, inspecting officers can apply test-audit at their periodical inspections of Divisional Offices.

submit a reference to paras 530 & 531 of the Madras P.W.
Code, which govern the practice in this Presidency with respect to disposal of journals in support of travelling allowance bills.
Hitherto in Madras the journals of members of the Engineer Establishment only have been forwarded to the Examiner P.W. Accounts for check, those of upper subordinates being checked and recorded in the Superintending Engineer's offices. As no inconvenience has resulted from the practice, and as much increase of clerical work will be involved by the adoption of the procedure indicated in the Gnt of India Resolution under reply, I am directed to ^{submit that} inquire whether any change need be made in this Presidency.

2. The test audit desired by the Gnt of India will be carried out and the results reported as requested. —
