In No 355 dated 19 July the Commission
writes that Govt may be asked to decide
with reference to Section 71 para 4 of the Local Franchising Allowance Code who is to be the Controlling Officer in respect of the Temple Restoration Parties.

I have no objection to undertake this duty but may doing so will delay audit and be hard on the officers not subordinates of the T R S as of course
when I am in town
there must be great
delay.

Mr Pears is my Agent in the T R S under Section 71 para 4 I am not allowed to delegate delegate the duty of counter signature to a subordinate but think there is no objection ^{to} that Pearce although he is (and probably the app^t will be held always by a junior) junior to some of the T R P Officers to be ordered to the Controlling Officer to the T R P under any orders. if this is allowed he will be ordered to keep all ordinary charges that he brings to any station any thing, should be what may be considered unfit for a Britisher to do.

If this is not allowed
I suspect the controlling Officer and the duty unintended cannot be helped. I object to the E. Q. of the T R P being there
even controlling Officer.

With reference to the duties of a Controlling Officer, as laid down in Sec 71 Rule 2, of the C. J. & C. Code, it may be an awkward arrangement to make Mr Pears the Controlling Officer for Officers senior to himself.

No difficulty might perhaps be got over by declaring E. J. the Controlling Officer for the J. R. Scheme while he is at the Quarter, and E. J. to be the same during E. J.'s absence on tour.

The bills could be submitted in the bank office, and submitted to E. J. for counter signature.
