ORDER—dated 22nd July 1887, No. 843, Financial.

On reconsideration, the Government resolve to cancel their Financial Proceedings No. 1007, dated 1st October 1886.

2. In future, heads of departments will be held responsible for obtaining returns from, and for checking the valuable stock of, their subordinates; while, in respect to the stock actually in their own custody, it will suffice if they submit yearly to Government, in the department concerned, on or before the 15th May, a report that they are keeping an inventory of the valuable stock in their custody, and have duly checked that inventory for the past official year.

3. No article of less than twenty-five rupees in value should be entered in the returns submitted to heads of departments under these orders, and ordinary office furniture and stores supplied for consumption and sale should be excluded.
