

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
MILITARY DEPARTMENT.

29th August 1887, No. 5271.

Medical Department—Attendance.

Read the following papers :—

No. 468. From G. BIDDLE, Esq., M.B., C.I.E., Surgeon-General with the Government of Madras, to Brigadier-General A. KENNEY-HERBERT, Secretary to Government, Military Department; dated Ootacamund, 18th April 1887, No. 22-O.

I have the honor to request the orders of Government as to whether European military pensioners holding civil appointments under Government are entitled to gratuitous medical attendance for their families from the Civil Surgeons of their respective stations.

2. In para. 1333, Army Regulations, India, Vol. VI, Medical, it is laid down that persons of this class who have been pensioned direct from the military service and who reside outside cantonments are entitled to this concession, and G.O., No. 6021, of 4th December 1875, Military Department, rules that this privilege is not applicable to any persons drawing a civil pension or who have received a gratuity for service in the civil department, but no specific ruling is laid down anywhere with regard to those pensioners who draw military pension and hold civil appointments in the Police or other departments of Government.

3. I am inclined to think that as, according to the Government Order of 1875, the privilege is not applicable to persons drawing civil pension, it should be held to be equally inapplicable to those drawing civil pay.

4. It will further be seen from para. 1325 of the Army Regulations quoted above that clerks in public offices (Army Head-quarters excepted) taken from the army have no claim to gratuitous medical attendance for their families, and likewise, in my opinion, pensioners from the army who hold civil appointments should be considered to have no right to the same.

Memorandum from Brigadier-General E. FAUNCE, for Officiating Adjutant-General, to Brigadier-General A. KENNEY-HERBERT, Secretary to Government, Military Department; dated Ootacamund, 23rd April 1887, No. 834-BA (Hospitals).
