JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

Despatch from the Right Honorable Lord CROSS, Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India, to His Excellency the Right Honorable the Governor in Council, Fort St. George, dated India Office, London, 14th July 1887, No. 5 (Judicial).

I have to inform your Excellency in Council that I have appointed Mr. Charles Pontifex, to be Solicitor to the Secretary of State for India in Council. Mr. Pontifex will henceforth conduct all appeals in this country on behalf of the Courts of Wards, as well as generally on behalf of the Secretary of State in Council. All communications as to appeals, whether relating to the Courts of Wards or to the Secretary of State, from the Government authorities in India, should be addressed to "The Solicitor, India Office, London."

2. I request that the instructions contained in the Marquis of Salisbury's despatch to the Government of India, dated the 13th of December 1877, Judicial, No. 49, regarding the transmission of appeals and documents connected therewith may be promptly and carefully observed.

ORDER—dated 15th August 1887, No. 1819, Judicial.

Communicated to all departments of the Secretariat, the Advocate-General, the Government Solicitor and the Government Pleader.
