READ—the following papers:—

From R. S. BENSON, Esq., Acting Registrar of the High Court of Judicature at Madras, Appellate Side, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 15th July 1885, No. 1914.

I am directed to submit the accompanying two estimates, together with four plans and a report and specification, for providing accommodation for barristers and vakils, and for securing attached movable property and cattle in the District Court of Chingleput, at a cost of Rs. 4,960, and to recommend that the works may be sanctioned for execution by the Public Works Department.

2. The District Judges states that—

> "The Court-house is not provided with anything in the shape of a shelter for parties and witnesses. We have no room wherein to keep attached movables. There is no room for the pleaders, much less for barristers who constantly attend the Court. In a word, the Court-house is badly wanting in the accommodation needed by a District Court, particularly one resorted to by residents of Presidency town."
