READ—the following paper:—

Office Note from the Examiner, Public Works Accounts, dated Madras, 5th August 1887, No. 419.

G.O., No. 1795 W., dated 5th July 1887.

In the proceedings of Government, No. 773, Public, dated 7th June 1887, communicated with the Government order above quoted, a distinction is made between invalid certificates and sick certificates, but as the terms are apparently now here defined and are not in common use, it appears desirable that the meaning of the distinction should be made clear.

2. By "Invalid Certificate" is meant probably a certificate of incapacity for further service, granted under section 108 of the Civil Pension Code, and by a "Sick Certificate," a medical certificate granted under Civil Leave Code, section 79, rules 10 and 11.

3. I should be glad to know whether my interpretation is correct.

PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following papers:—

From G. BIDIE, Esq., M.B., C.I.E., Surgeon-General with the Government of Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Fort St. George, 7th April 1887, No. 226.

I have the honor to submit the following departmental arrangement for the confirmation of Government:—

“First-class hospital assistant A. Paul, No. 48, attached to the civil dispensary, Calicut, will be considered to have been in civil medical charge of the station from the 5th to the 17th March 1887, both days inclusive, during the absence of the District Surgeon on inspection duty.”

OFFICIAL MEMORANDUM.

With reference to his letter of 7th April 1887, No. 226, the Surgeon-General is requested to report what is the effect of arrangements of this kind, both as regards the allowances drawn by the officer and his powers in respect of grant of certificates and the like.

(Signed) H. E. STOKES,
Ag. Chief Secretary.

6th May 1887.

From G. BIDIE, Esq., M.B., C.I.E., Surgeon-General with the Government of Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Ootacamund, 14th May 1887, No. 118-O.

With reference to Government Order noted in the margin, I have the honor to report to His Excellency the Governor in Council, that a hospital assistant, if temporarily placed in medical charge of a civil station in the absence of the Civil Surgeon and the Assistant Surgeon, on duty elsewhere, would have to discharge the medical duties of the station, dispensary and jail, &c., which cannot stand over till the return of his superior. He would also have to give any certificates emergently required. He does not perform other than current and emergent duties which do not admit of delay, and for this extra work is entitled, under G.O., No. 930, of 5th September 1873, Public Department, to a “palki allowance” of Rs. 25 (twenty-five) per mensem.

2. Seldom is a Civil Surgeon in these circumstances absent from his head-quarter station for more than a few days at a time; and being within the district, he can in an emergency return within a few hours.

ORDER—dated 7th June 1887, No. 773, Public.

The arrangement proposed by the Surgeon-General in the first of his letters read above is sanctioned.
