~~THE~~ EXAMINER,
PUBLIC WORKS ACCOUNTS,
MADRAS,

To

The Secretary to Government,
Public Works Department.

Madras, 29 September 1887.

Sir,

I have the honor to forward herewith, for transmission to the India Office, in the usual course, the duplicate of the final Last Pay Certificate of Mr. W. Michell, Executive Engineer 4th. Grade, sub-pro-tem North-Western Railway, Sind Section, who reported his intention of embarking for Europe per S.S. "Sutlej", which left Madras on the 6th. September 1887, on the 15 months furlough to Europe granted to him in the Gazette of India of 1887, Part II, page 539.

2. Mr. Michell not having embarked within the period of subsidiary leave admissible, his furlough has been considered to have commenced in India from date of relief, i. e. 28th. July 1887.

3. The original of Mr. Michell's final Last Pay Certificate will be forwarded to his address in England.

4. The delay in the transmission of the Last Pay Certificate is due to this office having had to wait for revised Last Pay Certificate from the Examiner of Accounts North-Western Railway, The furlough granted to the Executive

Engineer was reduced from 21 to 15 months; and intimation of the reduction was received before despatch of a Last Pay Certificate based on the original notification of 21 months leave.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your Most Obedient Servant.
