From the Officiating Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department, to the Adjutant-General in India, dated Simla, the 26th August 1887, No. 204 S.E.

I am directed to acknowledge your letter No. 3326 B., dated 1st August 1887, stating that the Commander-in-Chief concurs in the proposal that efficient volunteers should be granted war medals under the same conditions as soldiers of the regular army, with a view to the encouragement of volunteering and to develop the practice of clerks, who are efficient volunteers, proceeding on service with their departments.

2. In reply, I am to say, for His Excellency's information, that the Government of India have decided that efficient volunteers, proceeding on field service with departments of the State or on any public duty with an army in the field, shall receive war medals under the same conditions as soldiers of the regular army.

3. This decision includes the late campaign in Burma.

Endorsed by the Government of India, Military Department.
