

Notes of inspection by H. Rainier Esq. ~~Examiner~~
~~P.W. Accounts~~ of the cash book in the office of the Superintending Engineer 3rd. Circle, on the 8th. August 1887.

The Contingent bills rendered to the Examiner's office for February, March and April 1887, and audited, were compared with the Superintending Engineer's cash book for those months and found to agree, shewing with a slight exception neither more nor less than the cash book — the slight exception being that advances are occasionally made to lascars for expense on tour with the Superintending Engineer, such advances being recorded in the cash book but not in the Contingent bills. The balance of the cash book on the 8th. August shewed Rs. 1-0-6 so advanced, for which there was due acknowledgment.

2. The account of service labels was in order.
3. The average outlay charged in the Superintending Engineer's cash book per month for the last six months was Rs. 38-7-10. The imprest held by the Superintending Engineer being Rs. 80. The Superintending Engineer might perhaps find a smaller imprest sufficient, it being important to reduce imprests to the bare amount necessary in each case.
