(7)	Do. Nilgiri division ...	...	...	4,000
Total ...				15,804

2. Surrenders (1) and (2), or a total sum of Rs. 11,500, are resumed and held in reserve with the Government, from which source a sum of Rs. 1,225 is allotted as an addition to the existing grant for a new magazine for British Infantry at Wellington.

3. There being demands for minor works in the Nilgiri and West Coast divisions, surrenders (3) and (4) need not have been proposed. The Superintending Engineer is at liberty to utilise the money on other minor works under paragraphs 1322 (IV) and 1922 of the Public Works Code.

4. The total allotment for military minor works in the Presidency is in excess of the average outlay of the five previous years, and the additional grants under this head, asked for by the Superintending Engineer, will therefore require the sanction of the Government of India under paragraph 1931, IX, E., of the Public Works Code. The proposed transfers from original works to repairs will also require the sanction of the Government of India under paragraph 1542 (4) of the Code. The amount left in reserve with the Government will not admit of the demands being met in full, and the following transfers are therefore sanctioned in anticipation of the approval of the Government of India which will be applied for:—
