

PWC No. 9739

but in volume IV. Chapter IV. para 19 of the Government of India Code the time is altered to six months, and this agrees with the Indian Limitation Act of 1877- vide item 4 of the second schedule to that Act.

4. I therefore beg to suggest the issue of a standing order modifying the rule as now given on form No. M. 4; and I think the matter is one that should be dealt with in the body of the Code.

To

5th. Circle.

The Supg. Engineer having suggested to write off certain unclaimed wages due to workmen to the credit of the work concerned, I expressed an opinion that the amount due should be shewn as arrears either in the accounts of the work, or in the deposit account, until barred by the law of limitation

2. The Supg. Engineer in reply draws my attention to para 9 of the notes on Form No. M 4 (nominal Muster roll) and asks for further instructions

3. Para 9 of the notes on Form No. M 4, is apparently based on Section VII. para 12 of the 1877 edition of the rules for capital accounts of State Railways which runs thus - " all wages not claimed in three months will as a rule be forfeited by "
