

Copies of reports by Mr. G. Moyle, - Superintendent of the Practical course, of the - Assistant Engineers.

Messrs x x x x x and L. L. Wickham, - employed under Mr. J. A. P. Williams, Mem. Inst.
C.E., Engineer to the Cardiff Waterworks. x x x x x.
Mr. Wickham has been employed on the service reservoirs, filter beds and pipe tracks. Both - assistants have been made good use of, and have gained much experience of the work, as - well as having practice in levelling and surveying.

Messrs J. W. S. Smyth and M. Loam have remained for the year on a railway which is being constructed by the Midland Railway as a loop to - their main line between Skipton and Ilkley, in Yorkshire, and which provides numerous examples of works of an ordinary type, and one short - tunnel of an instructive nature. Very little - useful employment has been found for the Assistant Engineers, but they have had ample opportunities of gaining practical experience in the various branches of construction.

All communications should be addressed to the Secretary.
