31st October 1887

W. L. B. Baddley Captain R.E.
Under Secretary to Government
Public Works Department
Madras.

The humble petition of J. Prakash Mudaliar Temporary overseer, Jarada Estate, Ganjam respectfully sheweth.

That petitioner was appointed Temporary overseer on Ganjam Estate works by your honor vide Government Proceedings No 1501 W of 3 June 1887.

2. That petitioner when presented himself at your honor's office at Sripatna in June last was told that, a free passag to Gopalpur will be granted to himself family and one servant, and accordingly was provided with a passag ticket from the K.S.B. Company &c.

3. That petitioner was never told then that he will have to bear the passag expenses for his family separately, and had therefore been obliged to take them with him without any doubt as to the same.

4. That the Examiner P.W. Accounts in his letter
No 261 S.R. of 10 October 1887 wants to recover Rs 51 (passag expenses for the Petitioner's wife and children)
from his salary now.

5. That petitioner having been unemployed since

(February 87) he was thrown out of employ from the Karnat project works, and being the head of an unusually large family had been naturally reduced to very poor circumstances, and which attained the worst condition after his arrival at Jarada, owing to himself and all members of his family having fallen victims to the malarious fever of the locality.

(6) That petitioner therefore humbly craves that your honour will be merciful and charitable enough to sanction the passage expenses for his wife and children also, and thus kindly protect.

(7) That petitioners for which act of charity will ever pray.

Petitioner begs to remain
Your honour most obt. servant.
